What are stack and nesting containers and totes?

Stacking and Nesting Containers and Totes are strong, durable, reliable and perfect for storing and transporting supplies and parts throughout your warehouse or distribution center. Stack and Nest Totes are frequently used on conveyor belts and have optional lids.

Why do warehouses use plastic containers & totes?

Plastic containers and totes are frequently used on conveyors since their textured bottoms provide a safe and easy non-slip grip. The quality of these totes provides warehouses with a longer service life which in turn leads to lower replacement costs. Warehouse Shelving with Bins & Containers
